Unto their most Noble Magesties of AnTir, and unto the Alpine Coronet do we, Ambrose and Marian, Baron and Baroness of Adiantum send greetings.

Our apologies for not being at Crown Council, dread Virus has us in hold, though we are sure we will break free soon.

Adiantum does well. We are deep in preparation for Baroness' War next September, with an experienced autocrat at the helm (HL Karis Jessica Percy). The site looks very nice, the castle plans are finished, and we are gathering loot at a great rate. Due to our absence, HL Karis is delivering an update on that event to the Landed meeting this weekend.

Egil's, always a major focus for us, gets smoother with every year we use the new site. The county tells us the water should be up and running this year, and by next year the bridge should be two lanes. We have an Autocrat crew made up of one experienced (Dame Meagan Windemere of Oakwood) and one new (Lady Grainne Gelleo of Locksley).

In the recent past we had a successful Amergin's Revenge. It was much smaller than usual, but many events around the kingdom have been, and we regard this as part of the natural cycle of our society, rather than an emergency. Gas prices and economics, coupled with the increasing need of most people to choose some events rather than all of them contribute to this trend, which tends to reverse itself when people get tired of missing events, pay off the student loans, and the next generation of people gets more active. Those 100 of us or so that were there had a great time, and the performances were inspiring.

We have had a few officer changes this year, all have gone well. Our Seneschal will be turning over her office at Egils, and we have great confidence in her successor. The exchequer has begun the rather complex process of changeover, and her successor also will do very well in his new job. One of our newer people has been accepted as our new herald, and is being tutored by our more experienced heralds. She shows promise, and certainly has a loud voice!

One of our three practices has moved indoors for the winter, and as the venue is very flexible we have combined it with newcomers night, heraldry, dance, and sewing. We hope that it becomes a successful gathering for
